

MONEY to LOAN

The highest amount loaned on watches, diamonds, jewelry and all kinds of valuable articles at the lowest rates of interest. Business strictly confidential. Unredeemed pledges for sale.

S. VAN RAALTE & CO.,
12 and 14 S. Fourth St.
ESTABLISHED 1874.

DEWAR'S Detective Agency,

Room 422 Lincoln Trust Bldg.
The business was in all its branches transacted in every part of the United States and Canada. All business quietly and usually transacted at moderate compensation. Phone, Bell, Main 216.

CUT RATE TICKETS.

CITY ITEMS.

"TO MORROW" is the title of a pamphlet which is to be sent to every engineer who will pull the strings of his engine while coast and set out for one week the Biggest, Best and Largest Fire Salvage Sale. The outside dummy engines for one week we were more than satisfied, or allowed to move only at a snail's pace. Now, however, the men should they be found on the way there should they never know what held them. They would never know what held them. We would therefore say to them all, "TO MORROW."

DATE POSTPONED.

The Illinois Republican Convention Will Be Held May 8.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 13.—The Republican State Committee met here to-day and voted unanimously to postpone the date of holding the Republican State Convention from April 11 to May 8, 1900. The committee also took up the temporary news. This action was taken at the suggestion of the recent decision of Justice Carter, who held that the April 11 date was unconstitutional. The State Convention could not legally be elected before May 1.

WILL OF DORMAN B. EATON.

Several Bequests Made for Charitable and Educational Purposes.

New York, Jan. 13.—The will of the late Dorman B. Eaton, expert of civil service reform, was filed for probate today. Several large bequests are made for educational and charitable purposes. Columbia and Harvard universities receive $100,000 each. The New York and San Francisco Orphan Asylums and the Society of the Sons of Veterans and Vets' Home receive $100,000 each.

The value of the estate is not stated.

To Reach Texas Comfortably.

Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 13.—A line of travel from St. Louis via the Frisco Line and G. C. & P. Ry. Through observation and drawing-room sleepers and free meals, the new Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio. The only scenic route to Texas, Durying said.

Business Block Burned.

Janesville, Wis., Jan. 13.—A fire destroyed a business block today, entailing a loss estimated at $10,000. The firm burned out are Price, Keeler & Co., jewelers; Mrs. J. W. Horne, dry goods; George W. Jacobs, druggist.

Great Scott!

WHAT'S HAPPENED AT HILTS!

Open Saturdays

Till 10:30 p.m.

RESOLUTIONS FOR THE BOERS.

Circulated Among Business Men for Their Signatures.

The Boer sympathizers of this city have had the resolutions adopted at their meeting of December 20 printed in a broad form, and are circulating them to prominent business men, with the request that the signature of the recipient should be affixed to the same. The resolutions adopted were as follows:

The board is composed of J. J. Hanks, president; J. J. Ryan, secretary; J. J. Forsling, treasurer; and two other members.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The board is composed of J. J. Hanks, president; J. J. Ryan, secretary; J. J. Forsling, treasurer; and two other members.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which reads as follows:

That a committee of nine be appointed by this meeting, with full power to devise ways and means to arouse and make manifest the sympathy of the business men of this city for the Boers in their fight to preserve their independence, to prepare and arrange for a mass meeting at an early day to their end; to request that the same be held in the hall of the Knights of Columbus, or some other suitable place, to allow the employees to do so. The court upheld the law, finding laws $10 and Ward $10. The State was represented by Mr. H. C. Morrison.

The first resolution, which